people: Try to do me, here-

JFK/RFF didn't effect
the ult. to work.

K would not have been "foolish/unrealistic"
to hope that in another round of threats, JFK would back down from his "assessable"
demand — JFK agreed
it was less assessable
than K's — and was planning to back down
(if Coothes AA gave him enough time.)

Each side
overestimates the control

- the other has
over its "puppets"
- all its commanders
- and it (he) has
over ~~this~~ our
nation's policies,
actions

(though be recognizes & from the existence of tripping points - of "no return" - thresholds

after which, he would have "no
choices," w/
control..

VFK:

If another plane
is shot down -

CBJ: If we bomb
too far north, put troops in (and Chinese are "tipped" in...)
(He said some tipped over!)

Hop. JCS don't find this.
